Where Old School and New School are One School in Jesus Christ

- “Truth is the most intolerable thing on earth.” – Dr. Martin Luther
- My ground is the Bible. Yea, I am a Bible-bigot. I follow it in all things, both great and small.” – John Wesley
- “These are the days when the Christian is expected to praise every creed except his own.” - G. K. Chesterton
- "Impartiality is a pompous name for indifference, which is an elegant name for ignorance." – G. K. Chesterton
- Many people fear nothing more terribly than to take a position which stands out sharply and clearly from the prevailing opinion. The tendency of most is to adopt a view that is so ambiguous that it will include everything and so popular that it will include everybody...We need to recapture the gospel glow of the early Christians, who were nonconformists in the truest sense of the word and refused to shape their witness according to the mundane patters of the world. Willingly they sacrificed fame, fortune, and life itself in behalf of a cause they knew to be right. - Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
- “But in today's relativistic environment, pluralism no longer means tolerating competing ideas, but rather forced neutrality: no one should express any idea that could offend another...This redefinition of tolerance could have a serious effect on Christian witness. It is one thing to restrain religious activities in church-state conflicts, but something else altogether when cultural pressures stifle the practice of religious beliefs. To proclaim the good news is, after all, the core of evangelical belief.” – Charles Colson
- "In a sound bite society you get sound bite theology. Americans are more likely to buy simple sayings than a system of truth that takes time and concentration to grasp. People are more prone to embrace diversity, tolerance and feeling good than judgment, discernment, righteousness and limitations. People are more focused on temporal security than eternal security and its temporal implications.” – George Barna
